THE BEEF & LAMB

AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.

This has been the largest silk season in the history of our store. We anticipated a great demand for silks and bought extensively. Of the former immense stock we have still left about forty yards in waist lengths of exquisite fancy silks. We think it wise to dispose of these while the weather is still fit for silk wearing, and if price and your good judgment count for what we think they will not one of these silks will be cast over until the weather is too hot to wear. The $1.50 kind is now $1; the $1 grade is reduced to 75¢ and so on down the list. It's a great silk opportunity. Don't miss it.

THE PROPER THINGS IN UNDERWEAR.

We value our good reputation as handlers of proper underwear for men, women and children and our present large and varied stock will more than maintain it. Splendid tap Neckties &c; Neck and arm holes taped for 25¢; Little Vests, silk taped, 50¢, 35¢ and 25¢; extra sized Vests as large as No. 10 and 12 and 14. Splendid qualities of Men's Hairgrain Underwear 25¢ and 35¢. We carry a complete assortment of Infants' and Children's Underwear from 10¢ to 50¢ garment.

A WORD OR TWO ABOUT GLOVES.

Our one dollar guaranteed Kid Glove sells so rapidly that we seldom feel need to advertise it. It is the famous F. W. L. Glove which has been the season's output. In the undressed kid the Dupuy at $1.50 and in the dressed kid the $1.50 at the same price are masterpieces of the glove maker's art. Both guaranteed.

Trains on the C. and O. were delayed several hours yesterday evening, caused by the parlor car attached to Eastbound Flyer No. 2 leaving the track near Vanceburg and tearing up the road. The wrecking train from Huntington was taken to the scene and after several hours work cleared the track sufficiently for the trains to resume.

FLED FROM ARREST.

"Captain" Longmire and Sergeant McClure "Fugitives From Justice."

Capt. C. W. Longmire, Lexington, Ky., has been arrested.

That's the way it is spelled that's the way it is written on the register at the New Central.

And thereby hangs a tale.

Captain Longmire will be remembered as one of the deserters from the troops on duty at Frankfort last winter.

Subsequently he gained a stock of cheap military by seizing the armory and a lot of arms at Lexington, defying his superior officers, and finally going to Frankfort in command of a lot of "speckhangers."

Some days ago he was commissioned by Pretender Beckham to muster out three Companies of State Guards, among them the Company of Captain Horace J. Cochran of this city.

It was for this last purpose that he arrived here Monday night; and scarcely had he arrived he sought the congenial company of "Colonel" Red Newell. The Captain and the Sergeant, under the leadership of their "Colonel," were soon making the rounds of the gimlins, and they did not more than a dozen hogshod full of ring-tailed monkeys.

During their visits to the saloons, many a belated boozer was treated to a recital of the captain's brave deeds, recited by himself—and some wondered how it was that a single Republican militiaman got away from Frankfort with his life.

One after another the saloons closed, and the circle becoming all too narrow, the Colonel led his military band into pasture new.

The first place visited was a bawdy-house kept by a quiet widow East of Limestone; but the landlady had too much respect for her boarders to admit a crowd as that; then they sought "Dusty Avenue," and other avenues with no better success.

All the while old "Tempus" was "fugitive" at a lively gait, and it was long after the noon of a night when the command ran up against officer Harry. Harry had his memory with him, and the sight of the "Colonel" reminded him of a certain hand of cards that he won over his head—so he called him. The Captain put up a kick, while the Sergeant shuffled a few; but Harry told them their kicks didn't count, and he galed river water with him, and the "Colonel" was marched to jail.

In the softness of his heart, however, he permitted the sorry remnant of Beckham's Jackass Battery to hold down one of the New Central's spring mattresses.

Morning and headaches came to the militiamen; and between drinks Longmire notified Captain Cochran that he would be ready to muster out his Company at 7:30 last night; and Captain Cochran accordingly ordered his men to meet at the Armory with all their belongings.

Then Tempus fugited some more, and it was 11:30.

Longmire and McClure had ordered their dinner at the hotel—the dinner that they never ate!

Why?

Somewhere had gone before Police Judge Wadsworth and sworn out a warrant for their arrest on a charge of "drunk and disorderly," and before Chief Donovan could haul down to the hotel a sympathizer had "kipped it out," and the heroes of all the bloody battles fought at Frankfort had skipped across the river—had sought the protection of Governor Nash of Ohio—and are, in fact, fugitives from justice!

It didn't take long for the news to get scattered, and there was considerable fun on one side, while the other was in a helter-skelter.

About the center of the afternoon a telephone message came from Aberdeen for Mr. "Pint"—to send over a quart, perhaps; and later the wireless telegraph carried an appeal to "Little Boy Blue."

Dear Beck: "Phone me a pardon p. d. 9. I'm in the worst fix. I need a command from Judge Wadsworth's requisition. Your brave soldier boy. LONGMIRE.

"Squire" did not go, but T. Democracy Platner and Policeman Wallace did; and this is what they brought back. It is dated at Maysville, but it was written in Aberdeen—

MAVSVILLE, KY., June 5, 1900.

Mr. John P. Wallace: You will receive all arms and equipment belonging to the state which are in Mason county and forward the same to Sergeant Henry Little at Frankfort, Ky. C. W. LONGMIRE.

Captain Red Newell, Lexington, P. S.—You will give Mr. Horace Cochran receipt for same. C. W. L.

Just think of a brave Kentucky soldier, hearing a command from the Pretended Governor of this great and glorious Commonwealth, being a fugitive from justice and issuing military orders to an ordinary Policeman, or over whom he has no more control than he has over the Gulf Stream!

And does he think Captain Cochran will pay any attention to such a fanciful "order"? When Platner Wallace receipts to "Mister" Cochran for "them gun" Andy Craig will be a Methodist Bishop.

If Beckham has any more rare birds he can send them this way. Maysville people are proverbial for taking good care of strangers.

Meanwhile, Captain Cochran last night had his men turn in all their arms and equipments, and will hold them subject to orders from the Adjutant General.

If the parties in interest are not satisfied with this "sketch," there's more that can be added to it.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mother and grandmother never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Bileousness. They were scarce, and they seldom heard of August Flower. Now it is everywhere. It is the only medicine that will cure Indigestion, Bileousness, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of Fifty Prominent Citizens of St. Louis Make an Appeal to Gov. Stevens.

PROTECTION OF LIFE AND PROPERTY

All Negotiations Between the Strikers and the Transit Company Looking to a Settlement Are Off.

Assaults on Inoffensive Passengers Continue, and Several Persons Were Beaten; Boston-Parmer Taken for an Employee.

St. Louis, June 6.—The strike assumed such a serious phase that 50 prominent citizens united in a telegram to Gov. Stevens asking him to call out the militia for the protection of life and property.

Negotiations between the strikers and the St. Louis Transit Co. looking to a settlement of the strike are off for the present, and probably will not be resumed until the strikers agree not to demand the discharge of the men now in the employ of the company, in order that they may regain positions they gave up when the strike was declared. Attorney Lehmann, for the Transit Co., stated plainly that every man now in the service of the company must be retained in the place assigned him, and until this is assented to by the strikers negotiations as to other matters are useless.

From a rioting standpoint the day was practically uneventful. Assaults on inoffensive passengers continue. William Sanders, a Remond, was brutally beaten by a crowd because they rode on a Transit Co. car. John Krenhall, a farmer, was taken to the city hospital suffering from a number of severe scalp wounds and internal injuries. Krenhall's story leads to the belief that the assault upon him was committed by strike sympathizers who imagined him an employee of the Transit Co.

ENGAGEMENT COMMENCED.

Fifty More American Marines Were Landed at Taku From the Cruiser Newark.

Washington, June 6.—The secretary of the navy has received the following cablegram from Adm. Kempf, commanding the United States steamship Newark, lying at the Taku forts in the mouth of the Pei-Ho river, dated Taku, June 5:

"Engagement has commenced. Have landed force of 50 seamen more—battalion marines. The Remonds are being the fiercest. The other message is not entirely legible, and it is supposed at the navy department that the admiral means that he has landed 50 more men to reinforce the battalion of marines already ashore.

Another Missionary Murdered.

Tien Tsin, June 6.—News has just been received from the viceroys through the men he sent to Yun Ching, that Mr. Newman, of the North China mission, was murdered Friday or Saturday. It is thought that the viceroys knew of Mr. Norman's murder at the time of Mr. Norman's.

Russian Troops Ordered to Peking

London, June 6.—The daily press has a dispatch from Shanghai dated Tuesday, which says: "Russian troops have been ordered from Peking to the neighborhood of Peking to punish the Boxers and to force two Cosaks and wounding two."

Approaching From All Sides.

London, June 6.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Tien Tsin, dated June 4, says: "The situation is very serious. The Boxers are approaching Tien Tsin on all sides."

WAR IN NORTH AFRICA.

Thousands of Moors Are Massing at Figini, Preparatory to an Attack on the French.

London, June 6.—Special dispatches received from Algiers portray a serious situation. Thousands of Moors are massing at Figini and in the neighborhood, preparing for a determined attack upon the advance posts of the French.

The French columns have joined hands at Zouba, but the men suffer terribly from heat and thirst, and hundreds of camels died.

The French are preparing entrenchments and are confident of their ability to repel an attack and even to take the offensive against Figini, if necessary.

Washington, June 6.—The senate rejected the nomination of Hon. W. D. Byssina as general appraiser at the port of New York by a vote of 40 to 37. There was only a brief discussion of the nomination of Mr. Byssina in the executive session. Mr. Byssina's name stood at the head of the list of nominations. Mr. Fairbanks said, rather than cause other nominations to be unacted upon before final adjournment, he would vote for Mr. Byssina, but not for him.

MURDERED FOR MONEY.

Two Frenchmen Faultily Assassinated in Mexico By a Band of Plotters.

City of Mexico, June 6.—The mysterious murder of two French gentlemen, traveling in the loneliest part of the state of Guerrero, has been solved up. MM. Courmont and Delphin went together into the state of Guerrero to look for investments, and took with them considerable cash. On the banks of the Balsas river they were killed, and it was given out that they met their deaths in a fight with boatmen and subsequently the armed force of police tried to arrest them owing to the quarrel with the boatmen. It now develops that the unfortunate men were assassinated as a result of a deliberately laid plot to obtain possession of their money.

The plot was laid in the small town of Copallo. The mayor, Francisco Sanchez, an Indian, was a participant. The guide of the Frenchmen, Cerezo, a young man, was also concerned. When the two gentlemen approached the Balsas river under the guidance of Alumbre, they were attacked by a band of men, who shot at them, killing Delphin and wounding Courmont in the legs. Courmont tried to escape, but owing to his wounds did not get far and had to give up and further resistance to his assailants. They proceeded to beat and torture him, asking him all the time how he got his money away. He replied that it was in the saddlebags.

The Indians tortured their victim in many ways for 24 hours, and then they set fire to a tree and riddled him with bullets. When he was dead they took him down, and one of the men, who was the mayor's son-in-law, then carried the body to the bank of the river, where it was buried. While riding away Mayor Sanchez deliberately shot at one of his followers, called Platero. The shot only wounded Platero, and the mayor told him and his other followers to say that he had been wounded by the Frenchmen when attempting to arrest them after their quarrel with some boatmen. It was also the mayor's son-in-law who found the body of Courmont dug up from its first place of burial and thrown into the river, where it was found, the mayor for his own purposes secretly giving the clue which led to its discovery as if by accident.

STATE OF SIEGE.

Hawthorne Race Track Officials Are Determined to Fight the Police of Ciego.

Chicago, June 6.—The Hawthorne race track was in a state of siege behind the gate stood 250 men armed with baseball bats, wagon spokes and clubs, and the 200 police officers and regular policemen under command of Alexander S. Ross tried to enter the grounds, there would have been serious fighting, as both the race track officials and the authorities of Ciego are determined to win in what is considered the decisive struggle for supremacy in the town.

Monday night President Jones appointed Alexander S. Ross captain of police and authorized him to select special policemen to assist in the cooperation with the regular police of Ciego. The programme laid out by Capt. Ross included a raid on the Hawthorne track, learned of the appointment, and soon gathered 200 men and a force of 200 men. The force of 200 men already at the track increased the number of track defenders to 250 men. The army was informed that officers in uniform who came with warrants containing the name of the person wanted should be assisted in every way, but under no consideration was any officer not in uniform and carrying "John Doe" warrants to be permitted to enter the grounds.

The army was then divided into small details and ordered to defend the small entries to the race track grounds. The men in armor passed were barricaded and doubled back. Behind them stood men ready to hit the first head that appeared. The large entrance, which was an armor pass over a double locked, only an aperture being left open for pedestrians. In halting distance from this gate 75 men were lying in wait for the expected officers, who did not come, however.

Savannah, Ga., June 6.—Astronomer W. W. Campbell and Prof. C. D. Perrine, of the Lick observatory party, have arrived here from their way from the Annapolis Co. to Genoa for the renovation of eight Turkish ironclads and are negotiating with the Bruce Co. for arming them.

TOWN SURRENDERED BY GEN. BOTHA

Over One Hundred Boer Officers Were in Pretoria at the Time and Are Now Prisoners.

The Thirteenth Battalion of the Imperial Yeomanry taken Prisoners by the Boers Near Lindley—Other War News.

London, June 6.—The war office has received the following from Lord Roberts:

"Pretoria, June 5, 12:55 p. m.—Just before dark yesterday the enemy were broken back on nearly all the positions they had been holding, and an Hamilton's mounted infantry forded to within 2,000 yards of Pretoria, through which they retreated hastily.

"De Lisle then sent an officer with a flag of truce into the town, demanding its surrender in my name. Shortly before midnight I was awakened by two officials of the South African republic—Sandberg, military secretary to Commandant Gen. Botha, and a general officer of the Boer army, who brought me a letter from Botha, proposing an armistice for the purpose of settling the terms of surrender.

"I replied that I would gladly meet the commandant general the next morning, but that I was not prepared to discuss any terms as the surrender of the town must be unconditional. I asked for a reply by express, as I had ordered the troops to march on the town as soon as it was light.

"In his reply Botha told me that he had decided not to defend Pretoria and that he trusted women, children and property would be protected. At 10 o'clock a. m. today, while on the line of march, I was met by three of the principal officials with a flag of truce, requesting their wish to surrender the town.

"It was arranged that Pretoria should be taken possession of by my infantry's troops at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

"Mrs. Botha and Mrs. Kruger are both in Pretoria. Some few of the British prisoners have been taken away, but the majority are still at Waterval. Over 100 of the officers are in Pretoria. The few I have seen are looking well."

BRITISH DISASTER.

The Thirteenth Imperial Yeomanry Taken Prisoners Near Lindley on May 31.

London, June 6.—Following is the text of the dispatch from Lord Roberts announcing the disaster to the Thirteenth battalion of the Imperial yeomanry:

"Pretoria Station, June 5, 12:55 p. m.—I regret to report that the Thirteenth Imperial yeomanry had to surrender to a superior force of the enemy on May 31 near Lindley. On receiving information of the disaster being attacked I ordered them to proceed with all speed to its assistance.

"Methuen was then on the march on the Heilbron side of Kroonstad, and half an hour after the receipt of my telegram on June 1 he started off by 10 a. m. the following day he was within 44 miles in 25 hours, but he was too late to rescue Col. Spragg's yeomanry.

"Methuen's force attacked the Boers, who were between 2,000 and 3,000 strong, and after a running fight of five hours completely routed the enemy.

"It is a very regrettable circumstance, but I trust it will not be very long before the Irish yeomanry are released from captivity."

FIGHTING THE FILIPINOS.

Two More Engagements Have Recently Taken Place in the Philippines.

Manila, June 6.—Maj. Johnson, with two companies of the 24th infantry and 25 men of the 15th infantry sailed from Honolulu to the neighboring island of Taba, where they disembarked simultaneously in four columns, converging upon a central point. The Americans encountered about 90 rebels, who retreated, and they captured 49, including all the officers, together with 10,000 rounds of ammunition and 24 rifles. Forty men of the 29th regiment, with a lieutenant, left as a garrison, the others returning to Honolulu.

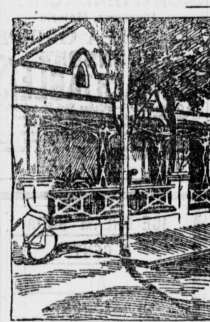

Company B of the 33rd regiment and Company G of the 41st regiment encountered 50 insurgents in the high mountains near Norezangay, province of Bulacan. There was persistent fighting, and several Americans were wounded. Finally Company G by a flanking movement carried the trenches. Trumpeter Speaker, of Company G, has been commended for "determined bravery" by Gen. Funston.

Troop G of the 41st cavalry, Company C of the 34th regiment and Company A of the 24th regiment are pursuing the captors of Charles D. Roberts, who was taken by the Filipinos while scouting near San Miguel de Mayaguez, May 29. It is reported that the Filipinos have separated among the trackless forests.

Forty rifles, with artillery and a considerable quantity of ammunition, have been captured by the Americans in the mountains back of Danaulahan. Three Filipinos were also taken. American scouts have destroyed the camp of Gen. Mascara.

The natives report that Mascara, with 200 men and 300 rifles, will surrender to the Americans.
